 Definitions

Notice Type

3. Type of notice: Amendment

Rule Purpose

4. Purpose of the rule or reason for the change:
 On 03/25/2015, Governor Gary Herbert signed Utah H.B. 229, Air Quality Modifications, from the 2015 General Session into law. H.B. 229 revised the statutory definitions of several terms in Section 19-2-102. The purpose of this rule is to amend the Utah Air Quality Rules so that they reflect the changes made to Section 19-2-102.

Response Information

5. This change is a response to comments by the Administrative Rules Review Committee.
 No

Rule Summary

6. Summary of the rule or change:

The definitions of "air contaminant" and "air contaminant source" were removed from the rules. The terms "air pollutant" and "air pollutant source" were added and defined. The definitions of "air pollution" and "ambient air" were also amended.

Aggregate Cost Information

7. Aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

Affected: No

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. They are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. There are no anticipated costs or savings to the state budget.

B) Local government:

Affected: No

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. They are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. There are no anticipated costs or savings to local governments.

C) Small businesses:

Affected: No

("small business" means a business employing fewer than 50 persons)

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. They are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. There are no anticipated costs or savings to small businesses.

D) Persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities:

Affected: No

("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency)

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. They are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. There are no anticipated costs or savings to other persons.

Compliance Cost Information

8. Compliance costs for affected persons:

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. They are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. There are no additional compliance costs for affected persons.

Department Head Comments

9. A) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact the rule may have on businesses:

Certain definitions in the rule have changed, but the changes are meant to provide clarity to the public and create consistency across federal laws, state laws, and state rules. The amendments are not meant to create additional obligations for regulated entities. Therefore, there is no fiscal impact on businesses.

B) Name and title of department head commenting on the fiscal impacts:

Alan Matheson, Executive Director

Citation Information

10. This rule change is authorized or mandated by state law, and implements or interprets the following state and federal laws.
